

Go Gently Into That Good Night

Sunday, October 13 ♦ 1:30-3:30pm

Mercy Conference and Retreat Center

2039 N. Geyer Rd. 63131 / mercycenterstl.org

Guardians of deep feeling, great poets have provided us a bridge of light at the most inarticulate of moments: grief. When we could be stuck in unmitigated bitterness or collapse, great poems show us a way to clarity and relief. Not morbid, nor shy about the topic, great poets grapple with grief, death and dying. Join facilitator Noeli Lytton and other eager poetry lovers in an appreciation of great poets such as Frost, Kooser, Dylan Thomas, Dickinson, Stafford, and others who reveal the nuances of feeling around death, dying, loss and grief. Be gently uplifted during this season of letting go.

Seating is limited, so early registration is recommended.
